Additional Information

1. Any registered Manitoba cooperative or credit union may submit a nomination for a Manitoba Cooperative Award. An authorized officer of the nominating co-op or credit union must sign the nomination form to affirm support for the nomination and the information contained in the form.
2. The nominee, or an official of a nominated cooperative, must sign the nomination form to give consent and to let their name stand for nomination.
3. For individual nominations, please submit a high resolution photograph of the nominee with the completed nomination package. This photograph will be used in the Awards Banquet Program if the nomination is successful. Successful organization nominations will be required to submit a high resolution electronic version of their logo for inclusion in the Awards Banquet Program.
4. It is the responsibility of the nominator to work in association with the nominee to ensure that the information is complete and provides the details needed for a committee of strangers to evaluate the contributions. For example, when completing the nomination form general statements such as “spent many years on the board” or “made many contributions” say little of value. Instead, provide more detailed and measurable information, such as “served on the board of Co-op X for 10 years, 2 as secretary and 6 as president” or “proposed and led the successful negotiations to amalgamate Co-ops X, Y and Z. Within 5 years their combined membership increased from 650 to 1100, and annual sales from $1.5 million to $4.6 million.” As much as possible, please separate events and achievements, and please use bullet points instead of lengthy narrative.
5. Nominators may forward more than one nomination in any given year, provided that each nomination relates to a different individual or project.
6. To be eligible to receive an award for the current year, a completed nomination form must be submitted during that year. Nominations from previous years are eligible for resubmission on the following years nomination form.

The deadline for receipt of completed nomination forms is May 31, 2022. Mail or email (with scanned signatures) the nomination to:
